Terms & Conditions

- Entry into any Western Lake District Publication is conditional upon accommodation establishments having been inspected by one of the recognised agencies as listed, and a copy of your current inspection should be returned with your form. If you are awaiting inspection copy of the organisations confirmation letter should be returned with this form as evidence.
- Any adverts published within Western Lake District Publications are accepted on the assumption that they comply with the current Trade Descriptions Act.
- Western Lake District Tourism Partnership reserves the right to refuse (without giving any reason) any application for space within any Western Lake District Publication.
- The signatory of the enclosed form is responsible for the payment of the account irrespective of whether or not the property is disposed of between the time of receipt of the form by the Western Lake District Tourism Partnership and the time of publication.
- Western Lake District Tourism Partnership accepts no liability for adverts omitted from Western Lake District Publications or errors in an advert.
- Composite adverts featuring more than one establishment will not normally be accepted.
- A cheque or payment details for the full amount of the advert must be enclosed with the application.
- Only payments over £200 (excl. VAT) may apply for direct debit. Terms 6 months only.
